SIR,

With reference to your very pressing docket No Fl 2790 dated 11th April 1904 regarding the submission of the consolidated Budget Estimate for the year 1904-05 , I have the honor to submit herewith the Budget Estimate in original of all the Districts except Chitaldurg, received from the Deputy Commissioners of Districts.

2 The Budget Estimate of the Chitaldurg District has not yet been received. An urgent reminder has been sent and the Budget Estimate will be sent up as soon as it is received.

3 I beg to submit these thus in preference to a consolidated Budget Estimate as the urgency of the case will not allow of further delay, and as while on the one hand we have no modification to suggest in the District returns, the work of compiling them will on the other hand in any case be done in the Comptroller's Office .

4 Two copies of the Budget Estimate of this office are in Superscription of this Scrip with this Office No 4943 dd 22-3-1904 also forwarded, one for being sent to the Comptroller and the other for the information of Government. It will be observed that a lump sum of Rs 5300/- is provided under "Temporary Establishments" subject to Government approval being accorded to its thus standing as a Budget provision liable to be utilised only with formal and regular sanction of Government if accorded in the future.
